

DENNIS O'BRIEN – CURRICULUM VITAE (dennisobrien@spacetreaty.org)

Dennis O'Brien is a lawyer and former member of the NASA – UC Law Research Project in San Francisco (below). He is currently a member of the Adaptive Governance Working Group of the Moon Village Association, the Space Law Committee of Space Renaissance International, and the Global Expert Group on Sustainable Lunar Activity (GEGSLA). In 2017 he started the Space Treaty Project, a scientific & educational nonprofit located in Mendocino County, California. Its mission: To give people Hope and Inspiration by helping the nations of the world to build a Common Future. This mission received a boost in 2022 by the creation of an Outer Space Resources Working Group by the United Nation's Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space (COPUOS), with a five-year mandate to consider "additional international governance instruments".
